

Welcome to the 22nd Annual festival of India in the Queen city, Charlotte NC! My name is "XXX" and I welcome you to an exhibition like you have never seen before.

Witness a union of over 29 states, a melting pot of various cultures and languages each unique to the state they represent. You are bound to be enticed by the auras and visuals that surround you today. From experiencing a special exhibit on a traditional Indian wedding called "Vivah", where you'll learn about the rituals like kanyadan, saptapadi and the famous pheras around a live fire all conducted entirely in the ancient language of Sanskrit to browsing works of Indian literature and non-fiction books on food, travel, culture and history, there is something to do for everyone.

Between the traditional dances and exhilarating Bollywood medleys, you are bound to stand up and move to the beat. If you are getting your hands painted with some Mehendi or Henna or trying out yards upon yards of luxurious silk sarees your senses are bound to be charmed, teased and lured into the magic of Bharat, India!

Namaste and I hope you have a great time!
